

About Tedward Brothers

Having met at a songwriting workshop in 2020, Edward Iglesias and Ted Todorov found that they were of similar musical sensibilities and began writing together. Later joined by bassist Robb Wallace, they've become a formidable musical force in the Southport NC area.

The trio pride themselves on crafting songs that, while fitting comfortably within the category of indie/rock, are anything but ordinary. With layered harmonies and thoughtful lyrical content, these seasoned musicians have the songs and acumen to deliver the goods.

Tedward Brothers Are:

Ted Todorov: Guitar and vocals

Edward Iglesias: Guitar and vocals

Robb Wallace: Bass and vocals

An early review...

"When I first had an opportunity to hear them, I knew immediately that their three beautiful voices, guitar playing and original songs were the perfect complement to a sunset cruise."
